President's Message

Two weeks ago, I had the privilege to represent our chapter at the CPCU Leadership Summit in Phoenix, AZ. It was a great opportunity to meet some of the people that make our society so successful. We had 315 attendees representing 93 chapters and 14 interest groups.

The sessions were fantastic and concentrated on Leadership for both the Society and the chapters. The Society shared a lot about the resources they have available to the chapters. The opening speaker was Drew Dudley who spoke about redefining our understanding of Leadership. If you have never seen him, go out on YouTube and look for "Lollipop Moments." The closing session speaker was Jim Abbott. Born with only one hand he became a professional baseball pitcher and pitched a no hitter for the NY Yankees. His story is amazing as he discussed his observations with ADAPT.

For those interested in attending a CPCU Leadership Summit, 2015's Summit will be held in Ft Lauderdale.

Come out to Chili's, join us at the Board meeting and learn more about how you can participate with the Chapter.

See you there!
